Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Lithuania finished the project of purchasing personal computers and office and telecommunication equipment.

On June, 2011 JSC “OpenServis” finished the project (No. 3.5.1.2.2/1) External boarder part “Special transit scheme” which was funded by 2009 year annual program means to purchase personal computers and office telecommunication equipment.

The main objective of this project is to upgrade hardware and software of old telephone stations, also substitute depreciated handsets and guarantee the appropriate communication between employees in different levels, who are implementing the Special transit scheme.

Within the project, JSC “OpenServis” provided software and hardware of SIEMENS phone stations upgrading, AVAYA phone station extension modules, SIEMENS and AVAYA system phones.