Telecommunication company OpenServis became the Gold Partner of USA network equipment producers Enterasys and will be responsible for installing and broadcasting Enterasys network solutions.

Enterasys is the part of Siemens Enterprise Communications group and produces data infrastructure, including routers, commutators, 802.11 and network security solutions.

Enterasys is successfully competing with Cisco or Juniper Networks products in USA and Europe markets. Their solutions are implemented in more than seventy countries, their clients are European Investment Bank, Fiat, Philip Morris, Vodafone, SAP, BASF, Audi, CERN, GoodYear and others.

So, contact the experienced OpenServis team in order to find the facilities of this equipment and advantages for your business.